

Kindergarten News!

- ✓ School Book Fair will take place May 10th and 11th. Students can buy books that they can have at home to enjoy and practice their reading.
- ✓ Just a few more weeks to turn in Box Tops and to finish up your ten volunteer hours for the year. Thank you to those who have already completed all of their hours.
- ✓ We are running low on glue! If you have some you can send, it would be most appreciated! 3 bottles = 1 volunteer hour! No stick glue please!

* In Ms. Kennedy and Mrs. Krueger's class (RM 101), Kindergarteners got to watch eggs hatch into chicks. Students learned how a mother chicken takes care of her eggs and what chicks need to survive. The chicks also visited Ms. Vaughn's class (RM 104), where students got to pet the chicks and ask questions about them.

* The zoo mobile came and visited both rooms and brought reptiles with them. Students got to see and touch a turtle, snake, and iguana. Students learned about where reptiles live and that they are covered with scales!

* The last three weeks of school will be jam-packed and filled with learning as Kindergarteners begin to prepare to be big 1st graders! We are so proud of their hard work.
